Laws of the United States

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC ACT No. 77.]

An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to provide increased revenue from imports to pay interest on the public debt and for other purposes," approved August 5th, 1861.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provision in the fifty third section of the act "to provide increased revenue from imports to pay interest on the public debt and for other purposes," approved August 5, 1861, allowing such portion of the tax as may be assessed by any State, Territory or the District of Columbia to be paid and satisfied in whole or in part by the release of such State, Territory or District [illegible] to the United States of any liquidated and determined claim of such State, Territory or District of equal amount against the United States: Provided, That in case of such release such State, Territory, or District shall be allowed the same abatement of the amount of such tax as would be allowed in the case of payment of the same in money, shall be construed as applying to such claims of states for reimbursement of expenses incurred by them in enrolling, subsisting, clothing, supplying, arming, equipping, paying and transporting their troops employed in aiding to suppress the present insurrection against the United States, and shall be filed with the proper officers of the United States before the 30th of July next. And in such cases the abatement of fifteen per centum shall be made on such portion of said tax as may be paid by the allowance of such claims in whole or in part the same as if the final settlement and liquidation thereof had been made before the [illegible] last.

Approved May 1, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT No. 78.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That a port of entry and delivery shall be and is hereby established in the collection district of Beaufort, in the State of South Carolina, at or near Hilton Head, to be called the Port of Port Royal, which shall be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as other ports of entry and delivery in the United States, and there shall be appointed a collector of the customs to reside at said port, who shall receive a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power to appoint, on the nomination of the collector, such inspectors, weighers, gaugers, measurers and other officers as may be necessary for the collection of the revenue at said port, whose compensation shall not exceed the rates allowed to similar officers at other ports of entry and delivery in the United States.

Approved May 10, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT No. 79.]

An Act to provide for the deficiency in the appropriation for the pay of the two and three years volunteers and the officers and men actually employed in the Western Department.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be and hereby is appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of thirty million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to enable the Government to pay the two and three years volunteers called into the service of the United States, being an additional amount required for the fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1862.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there be and hereby is appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry into effect the act approved March 25th, 1862, to secure pay, bounty, and pensions to officers and men actually employed in the Western Department, or Department of Missouri.

Approved May 14, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT No. 80.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the medical inspector general or any medical inspector is hereby authorized and empowered to discharge from the service of the United States any soldier or enlisted man, with the consent of such soldier or enlisted man, in the permanent hospitals, laboring under any physical disability which makes it disadvantageous to the service that he be retained therein; and the certificate in writing of such inspector general or medical inspector, setting forth the existence and nature of such physical disability, shall be sufficient evidence of such discharge: Provided, however, That every such certificate shall appear on its face to have been founded on personal inspection of the soldier so discharged, and shall specifically describe the nature and origin of such disability; and that such discharge shall be without prejudice to the right of such soldier or enlisted man to the pay due him at the date thereof, and report the same to the adjutant general and the surgeon general.

Approved, May 14, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 81.]

An Act to regulate the time of holding the courts of the United States for the district of Kentucky, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the circuit and district courts of the United States for the district of Kentucky shall hereafter commence and be held as follows: At Covington on the 3d Monday of April and on the [illegible] Monday of December; at Louisville on the [illegible] Monday of February and 1st Monday of [illegible]; at Frankfort on the 3d Monday of May and 1st Monday of January; and at Paducah on the 3d Monday of March and 1st Monday of November.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if neither of the judges of said courts be present at the time for opening court, the clerk may open and adjourn the court from day to day for four days, and if the judge does not appear by two o'clock of the fourth day, the clerk shall adjourn the court till the next stated term. But either the circuit or district judge, by written order to the clerk within the first three days of the term may adjourn court to a future day within thirty days of the first day of which adjournment the clerk shall give notice by posting a copy of said order on the front door of the [illegible] and place where the court is to be held; and the district judge, and in his absence the circuit judge, may order a special term of the circuit court, designating the same in similar order to be published in a similar manner and in one or more newspapers in the place where the court is held; and the said order the judge may prescribe the duties of the officers of court in summoning juries and in the performance of other acts necessary for the holding of such special term, or the court may by its order after it is opened prescribe the duties of its officers and the mode of proceeding, and any of the [illegible] of [illegible].

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That such number of jurors shall be summoned by the marshal at every term of the circuit and district courts, respectively, as may have been ordered of record at the previous term, and in case there is not a sufficient number of jurors in attendance at any time, the court may order such number to be summoned as in his judgment may be found necessary to transact the business of the court. And a grand jury may be summoned to attend every term of the circuit or district court by order of court. The marshal may summon juries and talesmen and in case of a deficiency pursuant to an order of court made during the term, and they shall serve for such time as the court may direct.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That a special term of any district court may be held at any time that the district judge may order, by giving notice thereof on the front door of the court house where the court is to be held and in some respectable newspaper of the locality at the place.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the district judge may adjourn the court from time to time to suit the convenience of litigants and to meet the necessities of the business; and the intervention of a term of the district or circuit court at another place shall not prohibit the power to adjourn over to a future day.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the terms of the circuit and district courts shall not be limited to any particular number of days, nor shall it be necessary to adjourn by reason of the intervention of a term of the court elsewhere; but the business of the courts at two places may proceed, there being a judge present at each place, or the court intervening may be adjourned over as herein provided till the business of the court in session is concluded.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That a clerk shall be appointed at every place of holding circuit and district courts in the district of Kentucky, in like manner and subject to the same duties and responsibilities that the clerks are subject to in other districts; and the deputy clerks at Covington, Louisville and Paducah shall perform the duties of the office respectively till clerks are duly appointed and qualified.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That commissioners appointed by the courts of the United States to take affidavits and so forth, shall have like power to take surety of the peace and for good behavior, according to the Act of July 16th, [illegible] and other officers heretofore authorized by said act now have.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all process which shall not have been returned when this act takes effect shall be returnable to the terms respectively herein fixed; and the clerk upon issuing original process in civil action, shall make it returnable to the court nearest to the county of the residence of the defendant, or of that defendant whose county is nearest a court, if he have information thereof, and shall immediately, upon the payment by the plaintiff of his fees accrued, send the papers filed to the clerk of the court to which the process is made returnable; and whenever the process is not thus made returnable the defendant or defendants may upon motion on or before the calling of the case have it transferred to the court to which it should have been sent had the clerk known the residence of the defendant or defendants when the return was brought.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That in case of the existence of bail bonds for the appearance of persons to answer, it shall be the duty of the clerk to call the parties at the time they are bound to appear, and if they fail to enter the same on his minutes, on which entry a judgment may afterwards be made of record by the court; and if the party appears the clerk shall take another bond, with surety similar to the first, for further appearance at the next succeeding term of the court, and if the party fail to give bond and surety, then he shall stand committed by order of the clerk till he does comply.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed, and this act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved May 15, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 82.]

An Act to establish a Department of Agriculture.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby established at the seat of Government of the United States a Department of Agriculture, the general design and duties of which shall be to acquire and to diffuse among the people of the United States useful information on subjects connected with agriculture in the most general and comprehensive sense of that word, and to procure, propagate and distribute among the people new and valuable seeds and plants.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a "Commissioner of Agriculture," who shall be the chief executive officer of the Department of Agriculture, who shall hold his office by a tenure similar to that of other civil officers appointed by the President, and who shall receive for his compensation a salary of three thousand dollars per annum.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Agriculture to acquire and preserve in his Department all information concerning agriculture which he can obtain by means of books and correspondence, and by practical and scientific experiments, (accurate records of which experiments shall be kept in his office,) by the collection of statistics, and by any other appropriate means within his power; to collect as he may be able, new and valuable seeds and plants; to test, by cultivation, the value of such of them as may require such tests; to propagate such as may be worthy of propagation, and to distribute them among agriculturists. He shall annually make a general report in writing of his acts to the President and to Congress, in which he may recommend the publication of papers forming parts of or accompanying his report, which report shall also contain an account of all moneys received and expended by him. He shall also make special reports on particular subjects when required to do so by the President or either House of Congress, or when he shall think the subject in his charge requires it. He shall receive and have charge of all property of the agricultural division of the Patent Office in the Department of the Interior, including the fixtures and property of the propagating garden. He shall direct and superintend the expenditure of all money appropriated by Congress to the Department, and render accounts thereof, and also of all money heretofore appropriated for agriculture and remaining unexpended. And said Commissioner may send and receive through the mails free of charge all communications and other matter pertaining to the business of his Department, not exceeding in weight thirty-two ounces.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner of Agriculture shall appoint a chief clerk, with a salary of two thousand dollars, who in all cases during the necessary absence of the Commissioner, or when the said principal office shall become vacant, shall perform the duties of Commissioner, and he shall appoint such other employees as Congress may from time to time provide, with salaries corresponding to the salaries of similar officers in other departments of the Government; and he shall, as Congress may from time to time provide, employ other persons, for such time as their services may be needed, including chemists, botanists, entomologists and other persons skilled in the natural sciences pertaining to agriculture. And the said Commissioner, and every other person to be appointed in the said Department, shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office or appointment, make oath or affirmation truly and faithfully to execute the trust committed to him. And the said commissioner and the chief clerk shall, before entering upon their duties, severally give bonds to the Treasurer of the United States, the former in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and the latter in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditional to render a true and faithful account to him or his successor in office, quarterly, of all moneys which shall be by them received by virtue of the said office, with sureties to be approved as sufficient by the Solicitor of the Treasury, which bonds shall be filed in the office of the First Comptroller of the Treasury, to be by him put in suit upon any breach of the condition thereof.

Approved May 15, 1862.

COLORED SUBSTITUTES.—The Paterson Guardian has this timely reminiscence:

It is a fact not generally known, that during the Revolutionary War, when a citizen was drafted in Virginia he was allowed to find an able bodied man as a substitute, and no distinction was made on account of color. Very many of the slaveowners sent their able hands to fight in place of themselves or their sons; and history says these sons of Africa fought bravely and well, spilling their blood freely for our independence.

After the war these black soldier patriots desired to be free men, but their owners put forth their claims in every instance, and the blacks who survived the war, after having served till our freedom was achieved, found out that there was to be no freedom for them without their owner's consent—for the owner of a slave seldom relaxes his grasp.

The Legislature of Virginia, at the instance of Thomas Jefferson, in order to render justice to these blacks, found it necessary to pass a law declaring that having served through the war and imperilled their lives for their country, they were entitled to their freedom, and a law was accordingly passed to carry into effect this just and patriotic determination.

Peaches were offered in the San Francisco market the middle of July.

Laws of the United States

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 57.]

An Act to amend an Act entitled "An act to provide increased revenue from imports to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved August 5th, 1861.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provision in the fifty third section of the act "to provide increased revenue from imports, to pay interest on the public debt and for other purposes," approved August 5, 1861, allowing such portion of the tax as may be assessed by any State, Territory or the District of Columbia "to be paid and satisfied, in whole or in part, by the release of such State, Territory, or District duly executed to the United States of any liquidated and determined claim of such State, Territory or District of equal amount against the United States: Provided, That in case of such release such State, Territory, or District shall be allowed the same abatement of the amount of such tax as would be allowed in the case of payment of the same in money," shall be construed as applying to such claims of States for reimbursement of expenses incurred by them in enrolling, subsisting, clothing, supplying, arming, equipping, paying, and transporting its troops employed in aiding to suppress the present insurrection against the United States, as shall be filed with the proper officers of the United States before the 30th of July next. And in such cases the abatement of 15 per centum shall be made on such portion of said tax as may be paid by the allowance of such claims, in whole or in part, the same as if the final settlement and liquidation thereof had been made before the 30th of June.

Approved, May 1, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 58.]

An Act to establish a port of entry in the collection district of Beaufort, South Carolina.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That a port of entry and delivery shall be and is hereby established in the collection district of Beaufort, in the State of South Carolina, at or near Hilton Head, to be called the port of Port Royal, which shall be subject to the same regulations and restrictions as other ports of entry and delivery in the United States; and there shall be appointed a collector of the customs to reside at said port, who shall receive a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power to appoint, on the nomination of the collector, such inspectors, weighers, gaugers, measurers and other officers as may be necessary for the collection of the revenue at said port, whose compensation shall not exceed the rates allowed to similar officers at other ports of entry and delivery in the United States.

Approved, May 10, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 59.]

An Act to provide for the deficiency in the appropriation for the pay of the two and three years volunteers, and the officers and men actually employed in the Western Department.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be and hereby is appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of thirty million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to enable the Government to pay the two and three years volunteers called into the service of the United States, being an additional amount required for the fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1862.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there be and hereby is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry into effect the act approved March 25th, 1862, to secure pay, bounty and pensions to officers and men actually employed in the Western Department, or Department of Missouri.

Approved, May 14, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 60.]

An Act to facilitate the discharge of enlisted men for physical disability.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the medical inspector general, or any medical inspector, is hereby authorized and empowered to discharge from the service of the United States any soldier or enlisted man, with the consent of such soldier or enlisted man, in the permanent hospitals, laboring under any physical disability which makes it disadvantageous to the service that he be retained therein, and the certificate in writing of such inspector general or medical inspector, setting forth the existence and nature of such physical disability, shall be sufficient evidence of such discharge: Provided, however, That every such certificate shall appear on its face to have been founded on personal inspection of the soldier so discharged, and shall specifically describe the nature and origin of such disability, and that such discharge shall be without prejudice to the right of such soldier or enlisted man to the pay due him at the date thereof, and report the same to the adjutant general and the surgeon general.

Approved, May 14, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 61.]

An Act to regulate the time of holding the courts of the United States for the district of Kentucky, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the circuit and district courts of the United States for the district of Kentucky shall hereafter commence and be held as follows: At Covington on the 1st Monday of April, and on the 1st Monday of December; at Louisville on the 3d Monday of February and 1st Monday of October; at Frankfort on the 3d Monday of May and 1st Monday of January; and at Paducah on the 3d Monday of March and 1st Monday of November.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if neither of the judges of said courts be present at the time for opening court, the clerk may open and adjourn the court from day to day for four days, and if the judge does not appear by two o'clock p. m. of the fourth day the clerk shall adjourn the court to the next stated term. But either the circuit or district judge, by written order to the clerk within the first three days of the term, may adjourn court to a future day within thirty days of the first day, of which adjournment the clerk shall give notice by posting a copy of said order on the front door of the court house where the court is to be held; and the district judge, and in his absence the circuit judge, may order a special term of the circuit court, designated in a similar order, to be published in a similar manner and in one or more newspapers in the place where the court is held, and by said order the judge may prescribe the duties of the officers of court in summoning juries and in the performance of other acts necessary for the holding of such special term, or the court may by its order after it is opened prescribe the duties of its officers and the mode of proceeding and any of the details thereof.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That such number of jurors shall be summoned by the marshal at every term of the circuit and district courts, respectively, as may have been ordered of record at the previous term; and in case there is not a sufficient number of jurors in attendance at any time the court may order such number to be summoned as in his judgment, may be deemed necessary to transact the business of the court. And a grand jury may be summoned to attend every term of the circuit or district court by order of court. The marshal may summon juries and talesmen and in case of a deficiency pursuant to an order of court made during the term, and they shall serve for such time as the court may direct.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That a special term of any district court may be held at any time that the district judge may order, by giving notice thereof on the front door of the court house where the court is to be held, and in some respectable newspaper, if there be any, at the place.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the district judge may adjourn the court from time to time to suit the convenience of litigants and to meet the necessities of the business; and the intervention of a term of a district or circuit court at another place shall not preclude the power to adjourn over to a future day.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the terms of the circuit and district courts shall not be limited to any particular number of days, nor shall it be necessary to adjourn by reason of the intervention of a term of the court elsewhere, but the business of the courts at two places may proceed, there being a judge present at each place, or the court intervening may be adjourned over, as herein provided, till the business of the court in session is concluded.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That a clerk shall be appointed at every place of holding circuit and district courts for the district of Kentucky in like manner and subject to the same duties and responsibilities that other clerks are subject to in other independent districts; the deputy clerks at Covington, Maysville and Paducah shall perform the duties of the offices, respectively, till clerks are duly appointed and qualified.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That commissioners appointed by the courts of the United States to take bail, affidavits, and so forth, shall have like power to take surety of the peace and for good behavior, according to the Act of July 16th, 1798, that other officers designated by said act now have.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all process which shall not have been returned when this act takes effect shall be returnable to the terms respectively herein fixed; and the clerk, upon issuing original process in civil action, shall make it returnable to the court nearest to the county of the residence of the defendant, or of that defendant whose county is nearest a court, if he have information sufficient, and shall immediately, upon the payment by the plaintiff of his fees accrued, send the papers filed to the clerk of the court to which the process is made returnable; and whenever the process is not thus made returnable the defendant or defendants may upon motion, on or before the calling of the cause, have it transferred to the court to which it should have been sent had the clerk known the residence of the defendant or defendants when the action was brought.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That in case of the existence of bail bonds for the appearance of persons to answer, it shall be the duty of the clerk to call the parties at the time they are bound to appear, and if they fail to enter the same on his minutes, in which entry a judgment may afterwards be made of record by the court; and if the party appears, the clerk shall take another bond, with sureties similar to the first, for further appearance at the next succeeding term of the court, and if the party fail to give bond and surety, then he shall stand committed by order of the clerk till he does comply.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed; and this act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, May 15, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 62.]

An Act to establish a Department of Agriculture.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby established at the seat of Government of the United States a Department of Agriculture, the general design and duties of which shall be to acquire and to diffuse among the people of the United States useful information on subjects connected with agriculture, in the most general and comprehensive sense of that word, and to procure, propagate and distribute among the people new and valuable seeds and plants.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a "Commissioner of Agriculture," who shall be the chief executive officer of the Department of Agriculture, who shall hold his office by a tenure similar to that of other civil officers appointed by the President, and who shall receive for his compensation a salary of three thousand dollars per annum.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Agriculture to acquire and preserve in his department all information concerning agriculture which he can obtain by means of books and correspondence, and by practical and scientific experiments, (accurate records of which experiments shall be kept in his office,) by the collection of statistics, and by any other appropriate means within his power; to collect as he may be able new and valuable seeds and plants; to test, by cultivation, the value of such of them as may require such tests; to propagate such as may be worthy of propagation, and to distribute them among agriculturists. He shall annually make a general report in writing of his acts to the President and to Congress, in which he may recommend the publication of papers forming parts of or accompanying his report, which report shall also contain an account of all moneys received and expended by him. He shall also make special reports on particular subjects whenever required to do so by the President or either House of Congress, or when he shall think the subject in his charge requires it. He shall receive and have charge of all property of the agricultural division of the Patent Office in the Department of the Interior, including the fixtures and property of the propagating garden. He shall direct and superintend the expenditure of all money appropriated by Congress to the Department, and render accounts thereof, and also of all money heretofore appropriated for agriculture and remaining unexpended. And said Commissioner may send and receive through the mails, free of charge, all communications and other matter pertaining to the business of his Department, not exceeding in weight thirty two ounces.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner of Agriculture shall appoint a chief clerk, with a salary of two thousand dollars, who in all cases during the necessary absence of the Commissioner, or when the said principal office shall become vacant, shall perform the duties of Commissioner, and he shall appoint such other employes as Congress may from time to time provide, with salaries corresponding to the salaries of similar officers in other departments of the Government; and he shall, as Congress may from time to time provide, employ other persons for such time as their services may be needed, including chemists, botanists, entomologists and other persons skilled in the natural sciences pertaining to agriculture. And the said Commissioner and every other person to be appointed in the said Department, shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office or appointment, make oath or affirmation truly and faithfully to execute the trust committed to him. And the said commissioner and the chief clerk shall also, before entering upon their duties, severally give bonds to the Treasurer of the United States, the former in the sum of ten thousand dollars and the latter in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditional to render a true and faithful account to him or his successor in office, quarter yearly, of all moneys which shall be by them received by virtue of the said office, with sureties to be approved as sufficient by the Solicitor of the Treasury; which bonds shall be filed in the office of the First Comptroller of the Treasury, to be by him put in suit upon any breach of the condition thereof.

Approved, May 15, 1862.

COLORED SUBSTITUTES.—The Paterson Guardian has this timely reminiscence:

It is a fact not generally known, that during the Revolutionary War, when a citizen was drafted in Virginia he was allowed to find an able bodied man as a substitute, and no distinction was made on account of color. Very many of the slaveowners sent their able hands to fight in place of themselves or their sons; and history says these sons of Africa fought bravely and well, spilling their blood freely for our independence.

After the war these black soldier patriots desired to be free men, but their owners put forth their claims in every instance, and the blacks who survived the war, after having served till our freedom was achieved, found out that there was to be no freedom for them without their owner's consent—for the owner of a slave seldom relaxes his grasp.

The Legislature of Virginia, at the instance of Thomas Jefferson, in order to render justice to these blacks found it necessary to pass a law declaring that having served through the war and imperilled their lives for their country, they were entitled to their freedom, and a law was accordingly passed to carry into effect this just and patriotic determination.

Peaches were offered in the San Francisco market the middle of July.

The Daily Oregonian.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 1, 1862.

BRITISH COLUMBIA MINES.—The Cariboo mines are still yielding largely to the few engaged in them, but the cry for bread, and the bad season, has produced a panic among the new miners and prevented further gold discoveries. There has been much distress among the miners, and they return disheartened to Victoria, where the disappointed merchants and people are not in the best mood to help them. The hopes of successful mining on the Stickeen have failed. A letter from Victoria says: "All the miners and all the goods sent to the Stickeen have come, and are on the way back. Our people are disheartened. We are receiving blows from which we may not soon recover."

FOURTH OF JULY ADDRESS.—We have been favored with the copy of an address delivered by Elwood Evans, Esq., at Olympia, on the Fourth of July last. Years ago it was said that nothing new could be found in a Fourth of July speech. Recent events in this country have furnished new topics, and Mr. Evans has used them well. We marvel not that he was called upon by Union men (of democratic and republican antecedents) to furnish a copy of his effort for publication. The request does them and the successful orator distinguished honor.

EXCURSION.—We had the pleasure of a boat ride on the popular steamer Maria, yesterday, to Vancouver and back, and must say that we enjoyed the trip muchly. There was a very large number of our citizens on board, and we believe each and all enjoyed the trip fully as well as could have been expected, considering the hot day. We also had the pleasure of visiting several of our old friends in Vancouver and spending a few social and agreeable moments with them, and take this occasion to return our thanks for the friendly and courteous reception extended to the excursionists generally by the people of that beautiful village. We have only one thing to regret, and that was, the weather was too hot to admit of much rambling or circulating around the town. However, we all got a fine view of the garrison and its beautiful surroundings. Capt. Haley, and the officers of the boat did all that could be done to render the occasion agreeable and pleasant, and gained the approbation of every one on board.

ARRIVED.—The Steamship Pacific arrived at Couch's wharf yesterday, (Sunday) morning about 6 o'clock from San Francisco direct. We have three days later news from the East by the Pacific, which will be found under appropriate heads. We are indebted to Wells, Fargo & Co. for files of late California and Eastern papers, and to the gentlemanly Purser for the following memoranda and list of passengers:

MEMORANDA.—Steamship Pacific, A. M. Burns commander, left San Francisco, August 27th, at 4, P. M. Crossed Columbia bar on 30th at 3 30 P. M., and arrived at Portland 31st at 6 A. M.

PASSENGERS.—B. W. Smith, Conway, Durand and wife, Frank Hussey, S. Greer, Jas. Minor, M. Weil, E. Peck, J. J. Buttman, H. Haas, J. W. Connor, C. Leo, J. Bloom, M. S. Burrill, Mrs. N. B. Ingalls, J. A. Crabtree, Mrs. Crabtree, Miss Lotta, J. Wallace, W. Hutchinson, T. Vache, AARON BUSHWEILER, H. Heyman, Mrs. Kinney and child; H. Levy, J. S. Rosenbaum, Mrs. J. Flanagan, J. C. Van Rensallear, J. A. Strowbridge, Miss M. Holmes, J. S. Smith, wife and child; Mrs. H. M. Keeley, P. Wasserman, A. Steinberger, C. Hodge and wife, Mr. White, M. B. Williams and wife, J. A. Savier and wife, Miss F. Holmes, Mrs. J. H. Cook, B. Goldsmith, S. Readlich, B. Gatzert and wife, J. W. Pierson, wife and 2 children, M. Haas, J. Taylor, Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger, and 15 in the steerage. 400 tons freight.

SOAP.—Having seen the soap manufactured by W. B. Mead & Co., of this city, thoroughly tested in comparison with two foreign brands, we unhesitatingly say that no soap that comes to this market is better, while much of it is worse, for general washing purposes, while the price is cheaper and the weight and size of the boxes greater. Messrs. Mead & Co. have recently secured the services of an experienced manufacturer, and the article now offered is superior to anything of the kind previously manufactured. Therefore, we say to our citizens patronize home industry, and buy where you can procure the cheapest and best. Soap is an indispensable article, and every one of our citizens, both old and young, rich and poor, male and female, all need soap more or less, and as W. B. Mead & Co. announce that they can supply a million of people with the necessary article, there is therefore no excuse for gentlemen to wear dirty shirts, ladies dirty stockings, or children dirty faces.

☞ From Mr. A. Bushwiler, who arrived on the steamer Pacific, we learn that it was reported in San Francisco as the steamer left that Gen. Sigel had captured Stonewall Jackson, with 14,000 men.

COTTON.—It is estimated that the State of Illinois will send to market, the present season, from ten to fifteen hundred bales of fair staple cotton. Success in the cultivation there the present year, will be likely greatly increase the crop the next.

RETURNED.—Our old and good friend Aaron BUSHWILER returned home on the Pacific, and we are glad to notice that he has improved in health much by the trip.

Arrival of the Pacific.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

WASHINGTON, August 21.—There is no foundation in the statement that Gen. Dix is to be appointed to the command in New Orleans in place of Butler, or that Reverdy Johnson will go there as Military Governor.

CINCINNATI, August 22.—Two bridges on the Marietta and Cincinnati railroad, east of Loveland, were burned on Wednesday, supposed by rebel sympathizers. The bridges are being rapidly reconstructed.

The first instalment of Union prisoners will leave Indianapolis [illegible] which is the western depot for the exchange. Others will leave at the rate of 1,000 per day until all are exchanged.

Indiana has sent into the field during the last four days 11,000 troops.

NEW YORK, August 22.—The Commercial says that it has not transpired that the junction of McClellan's, Pope's and Burnside's forces had been effected [illegible] Aquia Creek.

A large portion of our grand [illegible] with the flag-ship [illegible] probably give the rebels a taste of their quality.

NEW YORK, August 22.—A special dispatch from Washington to the World says: It is openly asserted by the Emancipationists that the long political struggle is drawing to a close, that the President overborne by the pressure brought upon him will issue a decree giving freedom to all slaves, and this before the 15th of September.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says: In justice to all parties it is proper to state the following, which I learn from so many sources that it cannot longer be considered a State secret. Two weeks ago the President laid before the Cabinet a proclamation of Emancipation, abolishing slavery on the 1st of next December, if the rebellion should not be crushed before then. He asked the opinion of his Cabinet touching the propriety of issuing it. Secretary Smith, we believe, was absent. Of the others all but two approved the proclamation. Seward and Blair opposed it with all their might. The result did not appear. It is understood that the subject came up at more than one Cabinet meeting, but Seward and Blair remained resolute against the majority.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—Special dispatches to the New York papers state that the Baltimore papers say that since the order had been issued for drafting over 5,000 citizens of Maryland between the ages of 18 and 45, had left the State for the South and Canada. The exodus is still going on at the rate of 300 to 500 a day.

Commander Porter, the destroyer of the rebel ram Arkansas, has been made a Commodore.

MEMPHIS, August 20.—1,000 guerillas opposite Helena, Arkansas, are committing depredations within the last few days. They have burned 1,000 bales of cotton. Hindman's forces are reported moving west from Little Rock, for fear of the advance of the Federals.

The southern country is completely overrun with guerillas. Nothing like it was known before. The conscription takes all between the ages of 18 and 35; then the militia takes all between the ages of 35 and 40, leaving but few men at home for any purpose. All business is suspended in Mississippi; nothing but war is thought of. This accounts for the large number of guerillas everywhere.

The Grenada, (Miss.) Appeal continues to assert that a general Confederate movement in the West is to take place immediately, and that Tennessee will soon be in their possession.

The country to the northward is represented to be considerably excited, in consequence of the depredations committed by men claiming to be Federal soldiers, but are probably rebels disguised.

The Tribune's Rappahannock correspondent says that the greatest crisis of this war occurred between Thursday morning and Saturday night. It is past and we are safe, and the nation safe. Pope's artillery is now guarding the line of the Rappahannock. Fitz John Porter with a very heavy corps joined Pope on Friday evening, and a host of regiments have joined, and are joining him by way of Alexandria. Burnside has massed a large army at Fredericksburg. Pope is nearly quite as strong as Lee and Jackson.

Some stir was caused in camp by a sudden raid of 250 guerillas upon Cattle's station.—Under cover of night they burned 7 wagons, and ran off a number of horses and mules, and took about 100 prisoners. They also took Gen. Pope's personal baggage, and all his officers' correspondence, which happened to be in one of the wagons.

CLIFTON, C. W., August 20.—The gentleman supposed to be W. L. Yancey, who passed through Buffalo in disguise en route for Europe, via Canada, a few days since, was George N. Saunders, formerly noted as a New York politician. He is supposed to be a bearer of despatches to the rebel Commissioners in Europe.

CINCINNATI, August 20.—The rebels in the attack at Fort Donelson, yesterday, had 4,500 infantry, 300 cavalry, and 2 field pieces. The Federal force was only 4 companies.

A dispatch from Lexington says that there is no occasion for alarm about Gen. Morgan's position at Cumberland Gap. A courier just arrived reports a fear of starvation. The rebels are 15,000 strong in front and 30,000 in the rear under Bragg, Lloyd and Kirby Smith.

Cassius M. Clay was sent to-day with his brigade. Gen. Nelson also takes the field.—The Kentucky negro brigade to repair bridges will leave to-morrow.

A dispatch from Frankfort says that Gen. Morgan repulsed a large force of rebels on the other side of the Gap. Col. Garrard also had several more skirmishes with the rebels and repulsed them every time. The enemy expect to starve Gen. Morgan out, but no fears of this are entertained, as he has 30 days forage and provisions.

PHILADELPHIA, August 25th.—The Bulletin has information from a gentleman who left the Rappahannock yesterday morning that our troops had frequent skirmishes with the rebels, while falling back from the Rapidan. The losses are not serious. Gen. Pope holds the railroad bridges. We hold two commanding positions opposite the Rappahannock, which the rebels assailed several times. Our troops who are distributed along the river resisted all the assaults. They will be able to maintain their position at the Junction till the other army corps enable them to assume the offensive. The rebels are endeavoring to turn our right at its rear by the way of Warrenton.

NEW YORK, August 25.—A Rappahannock letter says that on the morning of the 21st the enemy opened a battery on our center and continued to throw shot and shell vigorously for several hours. A little higher up it was discovered that the enemy had during the night erected a bridge over the river. At this point a brilliant affair is reported to have taken place. In the vicinity of this bridge was one of Sigel's batteries, on which the rebels opened fire, to which for a time our battery ceased to reply, having been apparently withdrawn. Three rebel regiments rushed across the bridge, and no sooner had they crossed than Sigel's battery opened upon the bridge, and the fourth shot completely demolished it, at the same time a deadly fire of musketry assailed the rebels in front. Their retreat was cut off and nearly 2,000 are said to have been captured. About 100 were killed and wounded. The enemy having failed in this, strove to outflank Sigel by crossing at French's Ford, but reinforcements were ordered up and the enemy was repulsed.

ST. PAUL, August 2[illegible].—A gentleman from Glencoe last Saturday, the 23d, brings intelligence that [illegible] supposed to have been killed [illegible]. As regards the fate of the Missourians, it is thought that about 40 families, including those between St. Peter and Hutchinson, and at the Agency, are killed. Col. Sibley's force was at St. Peters last Saturday morning, 40 miles from Fort Ridgely. Col. Cullen with 700 cavalry proposed to strike across the country from Henderson, but may not [illegible] as soon as Sibley. Cullen writes for further advices as the news becomes worse. All the whole country is making [illegible] portions of Blue Earth and [illegible] counties are depopulated.

CINCINNATI, August 24.—The President of the Kentucky Central Railroad [illegible] that Buckner, with 20,000 rebels, is coming [illegible] at Somerset [illegible] Kentucky to join him. Bragg is at Chattanooga with [illegible] men. Humphrey Marshall is at the head of Big Sandy with 5,000 men.

The Cumberland River is in full possession of the rebels, and there is no travel by road to Nashville.

WASHINGTON, August [illegible].—The recent expulsion of newspaper correspondents from the army in Virginia, and the order of Government forbidding the transmission of intelligence from that quarter by telegraph, has rendered the collection of reliable news extremely difficult and almost useless.

[illegible], Mo., August 2[illegible].—Major [illegible], with 200 cavalry [illegible] strong yesterday between [illegible] Cane [illegible]. After a brief engagement he routed them, killing and wounding 11 and capturing 10. A number of horses, several wagons, a quantity of camp equipage were taken. The survivors scattered through the woods. Parties of Federal troops thoroughly mounted and equipped for guerillas are chasing after the other bands.

Twenty-three slaves were emancipated yesterday and to-day by the Provost Marshal General. The local provost marshals throughout the State have been authorized to grant free papers to slaves proven to belong to rebels.

Our troops now in Missouri are everywhere living on the rebels, in accordance with recent orders.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—Passengers from Virginia to-day report an engagement at Warrenton, yesterday, in which our forces were successful, driving the enemy out of the town. We are still holding it at the latest advices. The rebel force engaged were mainly cavalry.

CHICAGO, August 26.—A careful consideration of the evidence accumulated thus far goes to show the influence of white men at the bottom of the Indian massacres in Minnesota. The fact that distant tribes, like the Yanktons and the Cut Heads, moving in concert with the Sioux, and that force should attack a post fortified by artillery, like Fort Ridgley, such attack being without a precedent in Indian history, and that they murdered missionaries who have spent their lives among them, and who, in ordinary disturbances would exercise considerable influence over them, seems to indicate some direction of intelligence superior to themselves.

The following additional synopsis of Jeff Davis' message has been received: After alluding to the people's sufferings and the gallantry of the troops, he says: The vast army which threatened the Confederate Capital, has been defeated and driven from their lines of investment. The enemy is now seeking to raise new armies on such a scale as modern history does not record, to effect the subjugation of the South. He charges the Federals with rapine, wanton destruction of private property, the murder of captives, etc., speaks of the confiscation bill as atrocious and recommends measures of retaliation, says that stern and exemplary punishment must be meted out to the murderers and felons, who, disgracing the profession of arms, seek to make public war the occasion for the commission of the most monstrous crimes. Exasperation at failure has aroused the worst passions of our enemies, and a large portion of their people, even clergymen, are engaged urging an excited populace to extreme ferocity. Nothing remains but to vindicate the right of maintaining our existence, by employing against the foe every energy and every resource at our disposal.

He recommends further legislation to make conscription universal, and says a large increase of the Federal forces may render it necessary hereafter to extend the provisions of conscription so as to embrace persons between the ages of 35 and 45. The vigor and efficiency of the force, the skill and ability which distinguish their leaders, inspire the belief that no further enrolment will be necessary; but a wise forethought requires, if necessity should be suddenly developed, during the recess of Congress, requiring increased forces, that means should exist for the calling of such forces into the field without awaiting the reassembling of the Legislative Department.

ST. PAUL, August 26.—The latest from New Ulm village states that it is mostly burned. An arrival from Crow Wing brings intelligence that Hole in the day, a great Chippeway Chief, had issued a proclamation that he would not be responsible for the conduct of the Indians after Tuesday, and warning the whites to leave the country before that time. He has also sent a message to Mr. Doyle, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, to come up and make a treaty. The Chippeway difficulties following so close upon the Sioux raid causes great alarm in the northern part of the State.

A reconnoissance made from Col. Sibley's command discovered the bodies of persons murdered within 20 miles of St. Peters, and reports the destruction of property beyond calculation. The Indians attacked New Ulm on Saturday, and the fight continued till late in the evening, and we have had nothing from there since. Col. Sibley asks that a full regiment, armed and equipped, be sent forward at once, and thinks they and still more will be needed before the Indians are subdued. He thinks we have not less than 1,000 or 3,000 warriors to meet sooner or later.

The committee of citizens from St. Cloud appointed to visit the scene and report on the murders, returned a report that they went as far as Paynesville and found 200 persons in the vicinity of that place and Norway Lake murdered.

ST. LOUIS, August 26.—The Democrat learns that on Thursday last Rosen[illegible] left Corinth. The army, 8,000 or 10,000 strong, proceeded Southward toward [illegible], where about 15,000 rebels were lying under Armstrong. Price is at Tupelo, with 2[illegible],000 men. It is probable that on being threatened Price and Armstrong will combine and give Rosencrans battle. The withdrawal of the forces under Rosencrans will not leave Corinth exposed, as enough men remain for all emergencies.

NEW YORK, August 27.—The Tribune's correspondent says that in the rebel attack on Cattle's Station $500,000 belonging to the Quartermaster's Department was taken. A captain in Banks' [illegible], lying hid in a house near the railroad track, heard General Stuart give positive orders to spare McDowell's baggage trains, but seize Pope's and destroy whatever was not of public importance. This order was implicitly obeyed, although McDowell's wagons were close at hand.

[illegible] who came in to-day reports that our troops were whipping the rebels, and that we had captured 11 guns. A cavalry lieutenant came in [illegible], who confirms the report, and says that 16 guns were captured. He also says that when Stonewall Jackson [illegible] the south bank of the river. They [illegible] themselves under cover of the [illegible] and attempted to [illegible]. Whilst making [illegible] McDowell [illegible] thus [illegible] forces that [illegible] annihilated [illegible] with rebel [illegible] Fredericksburg [illegible].

Our [illegible] Fredericksburg [illegible] during the past two days [illegible] taken by Burnside.

NEW YORK, August [illegible].—The Herald's Washington dispatch says the [illegible] condition of affairs in Maryland [illegible]. It is well known that the rebels [illegible] openly organized in every county of the State. There is reason to believe that [illegible] with arms, and only wait the [illegible] opportunity to raise the flag of rebellion. The military authorities are strongly urged to require the disarming immediately of all who will not take the oath of allegiance.

The [illegible] dispatch says that the Cabinet [illegible] the general feeling [illegible] affairs is decidedly more hopeful than for some time past. The President is understood to [illegible] that the crisis is past and the [illegible] danger turned.

A [illegible] Colt's revolvers has just been started at [illegible].

Our gunboats have captured a rebel steamer laden with 4,000 stand of arms near Milliken's Bend.

Cure Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Influenza, any Irritation or Soreness of the Throat, Relieve the Hacking Cough in Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Catarrh. Clear and give strength to the voice of PUBLIC SPEAKERS, and SINGERS.

Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Common Cold" in its first stage: that which would in the beginning yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," containing demulcent ingredients, allay Pulmonary and Bronchial Irritation.

BROWN'S "That trouble in my Throat (for which the Troches are a specific) having made me often a mere whisperer."
TROCHES N. P. WILLIS.
BROWN'S "I recommend their use to PUBLIC SPEAKERS."

THE WASHINGTON STATESMAN,
A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,
Published at Walla Walla, W. T.,

BY N. NORTHROP AND R. R. REES.

Terms Invariably in Advance.

One year	$5 00
Six Months......	2 50
Three Months......	1 75

THE STATESMAN has reliable correspondents in all the mining regions of Oregon, and Washington Territory—Powder River, Salmon River, Oro Fino, Colville, and the Bitter Root and Deer Lodge Valleys; and its facilities for obtaining news from these localities, both through its correspondents and the expresses running from Walla Walla to these points, are superior to those of any other paper published in Oregon or Washington Territory.

The paper is the same size as the Weekly Oregonian, and its large circulation in all the mining regions above mentioned renders it, to merchants and others, an excellent advertising medium. aug5:4mdw

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a firm, ... stitch, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity; and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully refunded by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

The rebels are gathering at Hawesville, Kentucky, in considerable force. The Federal ram Hornet, with troops, has gone to look after them. Henderson and Owensboro are strongly garrisoned by Federal soldiers, who arrest all traitors. The Louisville prisons are crowded with these rascals, and some are being sent to the Indiana penitentiary. It is feared that the rebels intend making an attack on Mound City to destroy the gunboats being built there.

The enforcement of the Confiscation Act is said to have produced a salutary effect on traitors about Washington.

On Sunday, June 8th, James F. Tilton, a private in Company I, 4th Regiment New Hampshire Volunteers, and Miss Mary A. Walton, were joined in the bands of wedlock at the house of a mutual friend in St. Augustine, Florida. The father and elder sister (the mother being absent from the city) hearing of the marriage, became much distressed, Walton alleging that Mary had been deceived. But Mary knew her own business, it seems, and declared to pater familias that she had acted of her own free will and not upon compulsion from any source. The question of informality was raised, when the youthful couple concluded that if they were not married they soon would be, and accordingly, on the following day, summoned the Provost Marshal, who tied the knot a second time, the nuptials being witnessed by several of the officers of the regiment. In the evening a large dinner party was given at the Florida House to about one hundred guests. Speeches were made and toasts drank. Among the sentiments, the following offered by Capt. Brown, was drank with three cheers: "The first military wedding in St. Augustine.—May the bride and bridegroom always march in column by company, or by the right flank; may they have a good Quartermaster, and in the battle of life may they keep the files well closed, and be well supported with infantry."

A lady thus proposes the employment of women as clerks in place of young men who are capable of military duty: "Thousands of young men, who feel the urgent pressure of the country's present need of troops, are yet detained at home by the necessity of providing for mothers or wives or sisters, wholly or partially dependent upon them. In large commercial cities, the great bulk of the occupations of one class of men make no such demands upon the physical energies as to confine them to their sex. Why should not these same sisters, or even wives, when not otherwise engaged with young children, step forward as substitutes in these positions, and release the men for the defense of the country? Not in the professions, of course, where long previous training is requisite, nor as managers of large business concerns, for which their previous education had not fitted them, and whose proprietors are not generally among the possible recruits. But as clerks, masters of all descriptions, book-keepers, accountants, scribes, insurance companies, editors' offices, manufactories and the like, a very little diligent preparation would render hundreds and thousands of women perfectly competent to fill the places of their male relatives. The substitution might be temporary, until the safe return of the brother or husband from the war, or permanent, in the event of his death."

A powerful military force, consisting of portions of the corps commanded by Generals Curtis and Sherman, has been dispatched to take part in the siege of Vicksburg. The intention seems to be to take that place, and thus open the Mississippi river, at all hazards. We may look for stirring news from that quarter before long. The presumption is fair that the force now employed against the rebels at Vicksburg, is competent to insure the occupation of the place.

Gen. Hovey, who is in command at Memphis, requires all citizens to take the oath or go South. The members of the Typographical Union there wished to be relieved from the operations of the order, and sought to be regarded as neutrals. Gen. Hovey refused to accede to their wishes.

The grain crop of Texas, from the Rio Grande to Red river, this year, is said to be the largest one ever known in that State. Occasionally, small patches of cotton are seen, but this is planted for home use.

During a hail storm in Van Buren county, Iowa, lately, cakes of ice two or three inches in diameter tumbled to the earth. Whole fields of corn and oats were destroyed. Fowls were killed and horses were bruised.

Turner S. Foster, the late Circuit Judge of the Nashville (Tenn.) District, was imprisoned in the penitentiary at Nashville by order of Governor Johnson.

TOBACCO EXCITEMENT.—A successful experiment has been made this season in our county in the cultivation of tobacco, by Messrs. Stout & Peden, of San Ramon Valley. They have planted about 12 acres, and the tobacco has come up beautifully and matured thoroughly. It is now fully ripe, and will be cut next week. Good judges estimate the average product as certainly not less than 500 pounds per acre, and probably more. The sorts that have turned out best, we are told, are the Long Green and the Maryland Straight tobacco.—This experiment demonstrates the capacity and the adaptability of our soil and climate to the rearing of this plant. There can be no longer any doubt on the subject. The matter is tested and fairly proven. Quite an excitement has been created in the neighborhood of Alamo and Danville, among the farmers, we understand, owing to the success of this new experiment. From what we hear, we should not be surprised if very large crops should be raised next year in that locality.—Contra Costa Gazette.

JUDGE HOLT ON MCCLELLAN.—Speaking of the McClellan imbroglio, I believe the fact is not generally known that, contrary to what would naturally be expected, Judge Holt of Kentucky is an earnest anti-McClellan man. He says, very sensibly, that McClellan is an engineer, that his engineering leads him to defensive generalship, and that defensive generalship is not what we want in a war of invasion. Does not the whole of our defensive operations in invading the rebel territory vindicate the justice of the Judge's sagacious views?—Cor. Cincinnati Commercial.
